

Come, Let Us Reason with the Full Council of Scripture!

Rules and Regulations for Weekly Meetings

1. Ultimate Purpose

- The purpose of our meetings is to wear the name of Yehovah with pride.
 - We meet to grow in understanding, to honour His name, and to live according to His ways through the teachings of Scripture.

2. Meeting Time

- We meet every Friday evening.

3. Purpose of the Meeting

- We gather to reason together.
 - We reason with the full council of scripture.

4. Membership

- Anyone who is a believer in Jesus is welcome.
 - Anyone who is willing to learn about Him is also welcome.

5. Conduct During Meetings

- Meetings are held in person only.
- Everyone must listen quietly and attentively while another person is speaking.
- Each person must fully present their points without interruption.
- Individuals must wait for their turn to speak.
- We do not make assumptions or inferences about what someone meant.
 - If something is unclear, we ask the person directly instead of assuming their meaning.
 - We do not assume someone said something if they did not clearly say it.
 - We avoid incorrect interpretations by seeking clarification.

6. Use of Scripture

- We do not present personal opinions as scripture.
- We present what we believe and our stance clearly.
- We do not force others to accept our understanding as absolute truth.

7. Record Keeping

- Each meeting must have a written record.
- If an agreement is reached on any topic, it must be documented.
- If no agreement is reached, this must also be recorded along with the topic of discussion.
- The topic(s) discussed at each meeting must always be recorded, whether or not agreement was reached.

8. Opening and Closing

- All meetings must begin with a prayer.
- All meetings must end with a prayer.

9. Meeting Duration

- Meetings continue until participants decide to leave.

10. Important Notice

- This is not a debate.
- We are not here to argue.
- This is not a debating society; this is an Ekklesia.
- Differing opinions are accepted as long as they are backed up by scripture.
- Anyone who tries to cause arguments, division, or refuses to live according to scripture will be excused from the assembly.
